

1. General Rules

1. Any person or individual who has been banned by the respective game developers(Riot/Steam) will not be permitted to compete or participate in the tournament or in any qualifying event for the as a Player or otherwise. Substitute players etc. who are banned will be immediately disqualified from participation in the tournament.
2. In order to dispute game results, Players/Teams must write an email to admin@theesports.club with the relevant information like Match Date and Time, Match Lobby Link, Suspected Player or Team Details with appropriate proofs like screenshots and video clips and once complaints received Letsgamenow/Acer Officials will do thorough investigation and take necessary actions.
3. In-Game Player names, Player avatars and Team names must not contain
 - Racist Image or text.
 - Irrelevant Image or text.
 - Trade Marked or Copy Righted images.
4. All Teams must make sure to have a team profile consisting of minimum players required to play the tournament in Predator Website. The full line-up (including the stand-in's) must Link their respective required ids to their respective Predator Accounts.
5. Acer has permission to use Team logos uploaded in Acer Predator Website for use on live-streaming, television broadcasts of Acer and related events, online use, including but not limited to, social media posts and videos, and for the advertising/promotion of the Letsgamenow/Acer online broadcasts, (e.g., institutional promotion), and in connection therewith,Acer corporate partners and sponsors.
6. Each Team and Player will be required to use its official Predator account (or create one prior to the commencement of tournament play).
7. Acer management has the final ruling on all tournament matters.

2. Conduct Rules

2.1 Additional Rules

1. Players/Teams are expected to put forth their best effort in all games. Players/Teams may not intentionally forfeit a game or conspire to manipulate rankings or brackets.
2. Players, Team staff and/or managers, and other Team or Player representatives, shall not participate in or otherwise be involved with, either directly or indirectly, any fantasy sports, betting or gambling that uses tournament stats or results or that is otherwise related to Letsgamenow/Acer in any way, and shall not associate with bettors or gamblers, or provide anyone any information that may assist betting or gambling, either directly or indirectly, any fantasy sports, betting or gambling that uses tournament stats or results or that is otherwise related to Letsgamenow/Acer in any way. Any betting or gambling by a Player, Team staff and/or manager, or other Team or Player representative against his/her own Team's/Player's matches will result in immediate disqualification of the entire Team and, at the discretion of Letsgamenow/Acer Management, a ban from one or more subsequent Predator competitions (up to permanent expulsion from all future Predator events).

3. Players & Team representatives are expected to treat all members of Letsgamenow/Acer staff, and sponsors, with respect. Public statements made about private information, unofficial roster changes, and disparaging remarks made about Predator or its partners are prohibited.

4. "Tournament officials" refers to the following: all Referees and Administrators, any Tournament Directors and Letsgamenow/Acer Commissioner.

2.2 Penalties

1. Tournament officials may issue a foul, technical foul, or disqualify a Player/Team for acts of misconduct not listed in the conduct rules to preserve fair play and sportsmanship in Letsgamenow/Acer management's sole discretion.

3.0 Legal Matters

1. Match fixing is defined as an attempt to arrange or influence, in advance, the outcome of a match, or events within the match, usually for the purpose of making money, often from betting. 4 Participants, directly or indirectly, are not allowed to accept from, or offer to, any person or entity (whether they are participants or otherwise) any bribes/gifts/rewards of any nature in relation to seeking to influence the outcome, result of, conduct of, a match or the competition. Participants are under a strict obligation to immediately report to a tournament official any approach, or any offer of a bribe/gift/ reward made to them, or any other participant, related to seeking to influence the outcome, result, or conduct of a match or the competition.

2. Team Agreements: Each Team and its Players remain subject to all of the terms and conditions contained in this rule book.

3. Spirit of the Rules. Finality of all decisions regarding the interpretation of these rules, Player and Team eligibility, scheduling the tournament and related events, and penalties for misconduct, lie solely with Letsgamenow/Acer management, the decisions of which are final.